CLP Announces New Leadership for 2013-2014

ALEXANDRIA, VA (October 14, 2013) — Certified Licensing Professionals, Inc. (CLP) elected new leadership for 2013-2014 in September. The incoming CLP Board of Governors includes newly installed members Pamela L. Cox and Art Rose as well as new officers. CLP announced the new Governors during the Annual Meeting of the Licensing Executives Society (U.S.A. and Canada) in Philadelphia, PA.

“We are honored to welcome the new Governors who bring a wealth of knowledge, experience and insight to the Board, and we look forward to their contributions to support the growth of the CLP program,” Mike Lee, President of the CLP Board of Governors, said.

Cox is a Partner and Chair of IP Transactions at Marshall, Gerstein & Borun LLP in Chicago where she focuses on intellectual property transactions, protection and transfer. She is active in leadership roles in LES, the Licensing Executive Society International and the Association of University Technology Transfer Managers (AUTM). Rose is a Partner at Knobbe, Martens, Olson & Bear. He currently serves as Vice President International on the LES (USA and Canada) Board of Trustees. Mr. Rose will serve as the CLP Legal Counsel. The new Governors will serve a two-year term.
