35 Professionals Earn the Certified Licensing Professional (CLP) Credential during the October 2013 Exam Window

ALEXANDRIA, VA (January 7, 2014) — Certified Licensing Professionals, Inc. (CLP) announced today that 35 professionals working in the fields of licensing and technology transfer passed the CLP exam and earned the credential during the October 2013 exam window.

“Since 2008, the CLP certification program has served as a mark of distinction, allowing professionals to demonstrate their knowledge and experience, enhance their credibility, recognize their commitment to professional development and fulfill both their professional and personal career goals,” Michael Lee, Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein, & Fox, P.L.L.C., President of the Board of Governors, said. “We welcome these newly certified professionals into the CLP community.”

In addition to the United States, candidates from Argentina, Australia, China, France, Netherlands, Poland, Singapore and United Kingdom took the exam.

“We are continuing to see growing interest in the exam from the international community, strengthening our position as the global credential for a global community,” Lee, who earned the CLP credential in 2008, said.

The individuals who passed the CLP exam have demonstrated their knowledge and skill by meeting strict eligibility requirements, including experience and education, and passing a rigorous examination containing 150 multiple-choice questions. The individuals represented a variety of companies and sectors within the industry including:

- Aptalis
- Elanco
- IBM
- The Johns Hopkins University
- Life Technologies
- Lilly
- Merck
- Moffit Cancer Center
- Purdue Research Foundation
- Salix Pharmaceuticals
- Univalor
- The University of Colorado

- The University of Newcastle, Australia

The Certified Licensing Professional (CLP) program is a professional designation intended to distinguish those who have demonstrated experience, proficiency, knowledge and exposure to licensing and commercialization of intellectual property through involvement in patenting, marketing, valuation, IP law, negotiation, and intellectual asset management. The CLP program is designed to provide an inclusive environment for licensing professionals from varied backgrounds, thereby leveraging the multidisciplinary nature of the licensing field based on certain knowledge standards. The CLP exam is offered twice a year at over 400 locations worldwide. For more information, visit www.licensingcertification.org.
